1. Per reference request, CANELM attempted to obtain the latest edition of the Adressbuch der Deutschen Ostasiens, but was told by the Ostasiatischer Verein (OAV) that no later edition exists than the 1956 "Second Postwar Edition". No reason was given for the apparent discontinuation of the Handbook, nor could anyone say whether publishing would be resumed at a further date. CANELM was only able to obtain one copy of the 1956 edition which we are forwarding as Attachment A.

2. We are also forwarding for your information the following documents:

a. The OAV Country Report on China, dated 23 December 1968 and turned over by CANELM on 5 January. (Attachment B).

b. A written report prepared by CANELM which we received on 11 February. Topics covered include an announcement of the latest "Runde" meeting and a report of two additional firms engaged in the China trade. (Attachment C).
